THE FRICK PITTSBURGH PRESENTS FRICK WINTERFEST 2021

Outdoor festivities bring families and friends safely together during holiday season

PITTSBURGH, PA, November 19, 2021 – This fall and winter, from December 1, 2021 through January 2, 2022, The Frick Pittsburgh invites visitors to let their light shine and celebrate the season with a series of festive, family-friendly outdoor activities at the Point Breeze museum.

While the kids are out of school for winter break and holiday cheer is at its height, experience the Frick's first-ever Winterfest, a weeklong, family-fun-filled celebration featuring offerings sure to delight visitors of all ages. Ice skate alongside Clayton on a custom-built rink, see our merrily decorated campus and its surrounds in style on a horse-drawn carriage ride, explore how the holidays were celebrated in Pittsburgh during the Gilded Age on an outdoor walking tour, enjoy cozy treats and warm beverages from The Café at the Frick, and so much more!

On-site offerings hosted throughout our picturesque five-acre campus begin on December 1 with the opening of the Winter Lights, a beautiful outdoor display of twinkling lights, and live greenery as was Frick family and Gilded Age custom, including a kissing ball under Clayton's porte cochère! Beginning December 28, visitors can enjoy the familiar Frick campus sights and new seasonal additions all set to the Sounds of the Season, a curated series of playlists featuring festive favorites recommended by local Pittsburgh celebrities! Whimsical photo opportunities will also be stationed across our campus, honoring the various celebrations dear to us this time of year. Pose beside a larger-than-life holiday package, amid an orchard of glimmering snowflakes, or ring in the New Year in the Grable Visitor Center.

Our extraordinary new exhibition, Victorian Radicals: From the Pre-Raphaelites to the Arts & Crafts Movement, and Artist-in-Residence Vanessa German's thought-provoking special installation Reckoning: Grief and Light are on view at The Frick Art Museum throughout the season, offering a safe-haven from the winter weather and a diverse sampling of classical and contemporary art, through Masks are required for all indoor activities at the Frick.
