THE FRICK PITTSBURGH ANNOUNCES ELECTION OF BARBARA NOBLE HOWARD TO BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PITTSBURGH, PA, July 20, 2017—The Frick Pittsburgh announces the election of Barbara Noble Howard to the Board of Trustees. The Board includes Family Trustees (descendants of Henry Clay Frick) and Term Trustees. At a recent meeting of the Frick's Board of Trustees, Ms. Howard was elected to serve as a Term Trustee.

Originally from Johannesburg, South Africa, Ms. Howard is a graduate of Temple University, where she earned a B.A. in Organizational Studies. Since 2000, she has served as Executive Director of the Impact Young Lives Foundation, an international nonprofit that brings underprivileged South African students of color on two week tours of the United States to expose them to U.S. civil society and prepare them to be leaders in their own country. Ms. Howard is a Trustee of the Western Pennsylvania School for Blind Children, a member of the Virginia War Memorial Board of Directors, and a Trustee of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. She is also a member of the Robert Morris University Public Art Committee. Her husband, Dr. Christopher B. Howard, is the President of Robert Morris University.

ABOUT THE FRICK PITTSBURGH

Located on the Pittsburgh estate of late-19th-century industrialist Henry Clay Frick, The Frick Pittsburgh is the steward of collections left as a legacy to the people of Pittsburgh by Frick's daughter, Helen Clay Frick. The permanent collections include fine and decorative arts, cars, carriages, historic objects, and buildings. The Frick experience includes The Frick Art Museum, the Car and Carriage Museum, Clayton, the Frick family Gilded Age mansion, and six acres of beautifully landscaped lawns and gardens. Also included are an Education Center, the Frick children's playhouse (designed by renowned architects Alden & Harlow), a large working greenhouse (also designed by Alden & Harlow), The Café at the Frick, and the Grable Visitor Center, which houses the Frick Museum Store.
